

RENT-A-BANK LENDERS OPERATING IN ARIZONA

NOTE: RATES, TERMS AND EXAMPLE LOANS VALID ON APRIL 22, 2021

Online and storefront nonbank lenders are using a handful of small banks to launder predatory loans to Arizona consumers in an effort to evade Arizona's usury cap and consumer protections that apply to Consumer Lenders licensed by the Arizona Department of Insurance and Financial Institutions.<sup>1</sup>

Banks are generally not subject to state usury laws, so nonbank lenders try to use banks to front for loans and lines of credit, claiming that the bank is the "true lender," not the nonbank online or store operation that markets, services, collects and has the main economic stake in loans.

Federal bank regulators have adopted rules to authorize "rent-a-bank" arrangements despite opposition from state banking regulators, attorneys general, and consumer advocates. The OCC adopted a controversial "true lender" rule that applies to national banks but the FDIC has not adopted a similar rule for state banks. Some states vigorously enforce their state usury laws and are generally avoided by rent-a-bank lenders. Arizona is not one of those states.

Arizona's usury law caps rates at 36% annual interest for Consumer Lender loans and lines of credit up to $3,000 and at 24% annual interest for loan amounts over $3,000 up to $10,000. Consumer Lenders can charge a one-time 5% administrative fee up to $150. Arizona's maximum legal rates are higher than the national average.<sup>2</sup> Arizona regulators require out-of-state online lenders to comply with the Consumer Lender law.<sup>3</sup>
